On monday several scow loads of this stuff were empited there. The Commissioners call it pure ashes; but it is garbage, with about ten or fifteen per cent of asnes.

A reporter of the Herald was yesterday on the scows and saw three of them being empited by a gang of prisoners into the sunken march. The stench was intolerable, and as the prisoners loaded their wheelbarrows they bitterly carsed the Commissioners for compelling them to handle the fitthy mass. One prisoner reported that Two MEN HAD ALKRADY DIED from the effects of disease taken in the handling of the poisonous stuff, and that a number are sick. These three scows were towed to the breakwater wall yesterday morning, and when the reporter examined the ground there remained but a few square yards to be filled in to complete the work, and it was expected that the contents of the scows than tied to the wall would be sufficient. An examination of the filled in portion shows that this garbage to a depth of from three to ten feet. The stench was most offensive. And what think you, reader, do the Commissioners wan

THE TAX COMMISSIONERS' REPORT.

A VOLUMINOUS DOCUMENT -EXHIPIT OF EX-EMPT PROPERTY.

Messrs. John Wheeler, George H. Andrews and John N. Haywood, Tax Commussioners, have prepared a very lengthy report an reference to their department for the past year. This document contains a voluminous dissertation upon taxation from their own standpoint, the value of property in New York City and other kindred topics. It concludes as follows:-

EXEMPT REAL ESTATE.

A great many words wishout knowledge have found utterance in regard to the amount of real estate exempted from taxation, as well as to its distribution among denominations or sects. The total has ceen increased during the present year by the action of the Legislature in exempting by the action of the Legislature in exempting such portion of the New York Hospital projectly as 18 not a source of income. The Commissioners have no opinions to express as to the character and extent of these exemptions further than to say that it should be a claim of remarkable and exceptional character which justifies the exemption of property from which an income is derived. The following table gives the several descriptions of property exempted, together with the actual value, and what would be the assessed value if assessed.

TRIAL OF SERGEANT BUCKLEY.

The case of Sergeant Buckley, of the Seventeenth precinct, was again called up before Commissioner Matsell at Police Headquarters yester-day, Counsellor Spencer representing the defence.

James Lumsdon, residing at No. 17 First avenue, was called up by the complainant, Inspector Speight, and testified that on the morning of the 17th inst. he saw Sergeant Buckley on First he thought Buckley was under the influence of liquor.

Peter Banta, of No. 23 Second avenue, testified to seeing Buckley on the morning in question and thought he had been drinking. Saw him a me out of a saloon. A crowd was around the saloon at the time raising a disturbance.

In summing up for the defence Counseller Spencer dweit upon the hitherto spotless record of Sergeant Buckley, who had been on the police love since 1859. He had denied under oath the accusation that he was intoxicated, and his testimony should have weight with the Commissioner. There was not a particle of evidence to snow that he had been intoxicated. His presence in the saloon was explained away by the fact of his being called there to quell a disturbance. The decision was reserved.

ANOTHER ASSAULT AND ROBBERY.

A BROOKLYN PHYSICIAN BRUTALLY BRATEN BY HIGHWAYMEN-THE POLICE NOWHERE, AS

Another highway robbery and dastardly assault is reported from Brooklyn, of which the police, apparently, took no notice. The victim of this latest outrage is a highly respectable physician, a gentieman residing at No. 306 Adelphi street, and well known in social circles in the City of Churches. He was beaten into a state of insensibility and left nelpless on the sidewalk for hours churches. He was beaten into a state of insensibility and leit neipless on the sidewalk for hours after the assault. The particulars, so far as gleaned from a member of the unfortunate gentleman's family, are as follows:—

On Monday night last Dr. H. A. Langdon received a summons at his residence, in Adeiphi street, to nasten immediately to the relief of a patient who was reported iii in the neighborhood of the City Hail. He promptly arose and attended line call. When he propared to return to his home it was somewhere about two o'clock A. M. He proceeded in saiety as ian as the corner of Foliton and Adeiphi streets, whore, while utterly unsuspicious of danger, he was suddenly set upon by two scoundrels, knocked down, beaten and kicked about the head and lace, and relieved of a considerable sum of money which he happened to nave on his person at the time. He remained senseless and bleeding on the sidewalk for a long time afterward, when an officer attached to the Fourth precipic discovered him. After a hasty examination he procured his removal to the station house, where he was kept until the ensuing morning, when a transferral to his nome took place. Upon arrival there medical assistance was promptly summoned and everything done to alleviate his sufferings. His head and face were found most painfully and wickedighering that he is unable to furnish fuller particulars than those above given.

No report of the occurrence had appeared in any of the local papers up to last night, and the police authorities seem to have made no stir whatever in the premises.
